Order Sons and Daughters of Italy in America®

Meet Angie Hughes: OSDIA Member since before WWII

A member of the Order for more than 80 years, Angie Hughes recently turned 100 years old, becoming her lodge's first-ever centenarian. Roma Lodge #254 of Virginia Beach presented her with the Angie Hughes Award for her lifelong commitment to Italian heritage and the Order.

Angie was a member of Roma Lodge #254 for many decades before she switched to Italo-American Citizens Lodge #1077 in Portsmouth, Virginia, after her husband, Bob, passed away in 1996. Recently, she returned to the Roma Lodge, where she continues to attend dinner/dances, picnics, meetings, and memorial masses. In the past, Angie chaired the Annual Memorial Mass for several years.

“She is a kind, generous, compassionate, honest individual and young at heart,” wrote Roma Lodge President Anthony E. Alfano. “God bless you, Angie, and thank you for coming into our lives.” Cento di questi giorni, Angie!
